

Brad Moore, BBA
Exploration and Land Tenure Specialist

Education

- |                |   |
|----------------|---|
| 1978 -1990 | Various symposia on Nuclear Energy and Uranium MiningColorado School of Mines |
| 1976           | BBA, Major in Marketing, Minor in GeologyUniversity of Oklahoma               |

Professional Experience

- |                |   |
|----------------|---|
| 1991 -2005 | Morgan and Moore EnergyPresident, CEO, Exploration Manager <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Supervisor of drilling, development, leasing and mergers.</li></ul>   |
| 2002 -2005 | Moore Country Club Estates IncPresident, Lead Developer <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Managed and directed all activities associated with development of a 62-unit gated golf course community.</li></ul>  |
| 1982 -1990 | Moore Energy CorporationPresident, Exploration Manager <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Discovery and development of several uranium ore bodies in Texas and Wyoming, including:</li><li>• 55 Ranch, Powder River Basin, Wyoming (now owned by Cameco Corp)</li><li>• Cadena, South Texas (now owned by Energy Metals Corp)</li><li>• Goliad Project, South Texas (now owned by Uranium Energy Corp)</li><li>• Brookshire Dome, South Texas</li></ul> |

1977 -
1981

Rio Alto Mineral Company
Geologist

- Explored and developed the West Cole uranium deposit (now owned by Cogema)
- Provided support to leasing operations and public relations
- Prepared maps, reports, well log interpretations, and packaging for ultimate acquisition of the deposit by Tenneco in 1981