

*Ed Brezinski, MBA, BSc
VP of Corporate Development*

Education

- |      |  |
|------|--|
| 1978 | B.S. in Radiological Health PhysicsLowell State University (Lowell Tech) |
| 1990 | MBA in Finance/International BusinessUniversity of New Haven             |
| 2000 | Obtained Series 7 and 63 NASD licenses                                       |

Professional Experience

Portfolio Manager for Spear Capital Management

Over 21+ years of diverse experience within the nuclear fuel industry

1978 - 1984      Technical Experience: (Northeast Utilities and Yankee Atomic Power Company NPPs - Rowe Yankee, Millstone 1, 2 and 3 and Connecticut Yankee)

- Radiological environmental monitoring program management, dose calculations and instrumentation process and effluent monitoring of nuclear power plants.
- Chemistry and Health Physics department auditing and performance recommendations.
- Low level radioactive waste management and technical support.

Professional Experience, cont'd

- Nuclear Emergency Plan preparedness and on-call HP responsibilities.
- Shielding calculations, instrument calibration and general health physics and radio-chemistry support.
- Extensive contract administration of uranium, conversion, enrichment and high-level nuclear waste contracts. Risk analysis and qualification of supply-side vendors.
- Uranium/conversion/enrichment/fabrication market analysis and industry involvement in several committees in these areas.

1984 –
Present

Commercial Experience: (Northeast Utilities, UG USA, Nukem Inc., Uranerz and NYNCO and Uranium Energy Corp)

- Lead utility buyer for the purchase of reactor core components, nuclear engineering support services, uranium concentrates, and uranium conversion, enrichment and fabrication services.
- Development of long-term relationships with key suppliers of nuclear fuel commodities and services as well as with utility colleagues as a means of positioning Northeast Utilities/UG/Nukem/Uranerz/NYNCO with the best market information and reputation as an industry leader and innovator.
- For 10+ years, actively engaged in the constant and dynamic market analysis, client cultivation, strategic inventory utilization and optimization and trading, marketing and brokerage of uranium concentrates, and conversion and enrichment services.
- Extensive experience in the preparation of offers to sell and purchase nuclear fuel components and commodities.

Professional Experience, cont'd

- Extensive knowledge of the application of UCC and contract law in developing contracts resulting from accepted bid and/or offers for the sale/purchase of nuclear fuel components.
- Business and risk analysis of uranium mining companies.